Summary statement by the Secretary-General on matters of which the Security Council is seized and on the stage reached in their consideration

1. Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General wishes to submit hereunder the list of items of which the Security Council is currently seized, with references in parentheses to the previous summary statements that have been issued covering consideration of each item.[1]

2. It will be recalled that, in the interest of economy, the Secretary-General reproduces only once annually the full, up-to-date list of items of which the Security Council is seized. In fulfilment of his responsibility under rule 11, an addendum to the basic list is issued weekly, making reference to those items on which further action has been taken by the Council during the week covered or indicating that there has been no change during that period.

3. The last full summary statement (S/2001/15) was issued on 19 March 2001. The last weekly addendum (S/2001/15/Add.52) covered developments up to 29 December 2001.

4. During the period since the last full summary statement, the Security Council included the following item in the agenda of its 4337th meeting, held in private on 27 June 2001, and concluded its consideration of the item at the same meeting:

> "Recommendation for the appointment of the Secretary-General of the United Nations" (see S/2001/15/Add.26).

5. Also during this period, the Security Council included the following item in the agenda of its 4345th meeting, held on 5 July 2001, and concluded its consideration of the item at the same meeting:

> "Date of election to fill a vacancy in the International Court of Justice" (see S/2001/15/Add.27).

[1] In the following listing, the formula "see ..." indicates consideration of the item on a previous occasion; the formula "see also ..." refers to consideration of a related item. The listing of the same document symbol under both formulas means that the item itself and the related item were considered in the course of the same week.
